TEAM

Teens Entering Active Ministry

team \ˈtēm\ n: A group organized to work together to achieve a common goal

Camp Chetek

Be a Part of the TEAM at Camp Chetek

Purpose

Camp Chetek's TEAM program strives to:

1. Help teens grow in Christ through the teaching and practical application of God's Word.
2. Instill a Godly work ethic and Christ-like servant's spirit in today's youth.
3. Provide a Christian atmosphere for teens to fellowship with other believers and have an enjoyable camp experience.

Program

Character Development:

Biblical teaching on servant leadership, attitude, devotion. Application of all of these and more truths will help teens develop godly character.

Course:

You will be involved in a week of leadership training which will include teaching/preaching sessions and activity and serving times. Leading the course are Evangelist Scott Sivnksty and Dr. Matt Williams. When finished with the leadership training, you will have two weeks of serving in the kitchen, cleaning, or maintenance areas of camp.

Choice:

Choose which option works best for your schedule. You must attend one week of "Training Camp" in order to work in the TEAM program. Two weeks of service are also required in the option you choose.

Commitment:

Three week minimum.

Character:

A testimony to live for God and a desire to develop godly character as you learn to serve the Lord.

Cost:

$225. A $40 registration deposit is required. The $40 registration can be applied to a week of Teen Camp if you are not accepted in the TEAM program.

$20 discount if paid in full by April 1st

$10 discount if registration fee of $40 is paid by April 1st

Personnel

The TEAM program is for teens who are truly serious in their walk with Christ and meet these qualifications:
