

Brenda Kurtz

Brenda grew up in a loving family in Farmington, Minnesota where she and her sister were the fifth generation to be born on their family farm. She was influenced and impacted by extended family, especially her two grandmothers. Brenda came to Christ as a 15-year-old at a Lutheran youth retreat in downtown Minneapolis.

Brenda and her husband, Dean, went to Pillsbury Baptist Bible College and after his graduation headed out to Lansdale, PA, where he served on the school and pastoral staff for 25 years. The Lord has given the Kurtz's two beautiful daughters, Sarah and Colette. Their family moved to Watertown, WI in 2006, where Brenda works in the Human Resources Department at Maranatha Baptist University, and Dean serves as Associate Pastor of Outreach and Adult Ministries and leads the music and worship ministries at Calvary Baptist Church. Friday nights you'll find the Kurtz's at newfocus, an addiction ministry Dean started in 2007.

"God has greatly used experiences of depression and anxiety in my life to purify me and grow my faith and has gifted me with the opportunity to help others." - Brenda
